DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 6-12 and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Japanese Patent No. 05201555 A to Inoue (hereinafter “Inoue”).

Inoue discloses a sheet feed cassette, comprising:

- a case (see Fig. 8) that accommodates a stack of recording mediums;
- a slide member (see Fig. 1), provided inside of the case, slidably disposed in association with a size of the stack of recording mediums, the case and the slide member determining an accommodating area that accommodates the stack of recording mediums;
- an urging member (39), provided at the slide member that faces one side of the stack of recording mediums, that urges the one side of the stack of recording mediums; and
- an actuator (unnumbered part of urging member 39 that projects from wall 33 into the back of 39b to bias it; see Fig. 1) that transforms the urging member such that the accommodating area at a top portion of the case is larger than the accommodating area at a bottom portion of the case.

In regard to claims 2, 19 and 20, compare Fig. 1 with Fig. 3.

In regard to claim 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 13, 16 and 17, see Fig. 1.

In regard to claim 10, spring 39 is attached to the other end of the protrusion, see Fig. 1.

In regard to claim 11, see Fig. 5, wherein 39 is shaped as a lower case "n".

In regard to claim 12, see Fig. 1, where unnumbered part of urging member 39 that projects from wall 33 into the back of the 39b along which the urging member is transformed (compare with Fig. 3).

In regard to claim 18, see Fig. 9.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4, 5, 14 and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
